

GENERAL RENTAL CONDITIONS

1. DELIVERY OF VEHICLE

Locauto Rent (hereinafter referred to as the "Lessor") shall deliver to the Lessee (hereinafter referred to as the "Customer") the motor vehicle specified in the rental agreement. If not expressly and otherwise specified in the rental agreement, the vehicle is delivered with the tank full of fuel and must be returned at the end of the rental with the same quantity of fuel. In the event the Customer has purchased the Prepaid Fuel service, they may return the vehicle with any level of fuel; the fuel not consumed will not be reimbursed. The vehicle is equipped with the accessories indicated in the rental agreement and related documents, including the insurance certificate. At the time of delivery of the vehicle, the Customer is required to verify the condition of the vehicle jointly with the personnel of the rental office, and is required to promptly point out any damage and anomalies visible on the outside or inside of the same that are not indicated on the forms ("Initial Vehicle Inspection Form"). This obligation exists even if the Customer uses modes of access to the service that are digital and/or not assisted by the rental office personnel. By signing the "State of vehicle at start of rental" form, the Customer acknowledges receipt of the vehicle in perfect order and however in conditions complying with those indicated on the forms signed and accepted by them. Upon return of the vehicle, the Customer is required to verify the state of the vehicle jointly with the rental office personnel. This obligation exists even if the Customer uses digital or unassisted modes of access to the service. If the Customer fails to do so, they acknowledge the correctness and validity of the observations made by the rental office personnel. By signing the rental agreement the Customer states that they have read and received the explanations requested, and thus that they are familiar with and accept these General Rental Conditions.

2. INSURANCE POLICY AND INJURY PROTECTION

The Lessor warrants that a TPL insurance policy has been taken out with a single limit of liability exceeding the limits set by law. The insurance policy does not cover damages suffered by the driver or that are the driver's fault, as specified in the policy, whose clauses and conditions in relation to this article can be consulted in extract form on the Lessor's site www.locauto-rent.com and are also available, upon request from the Customer, in paper form at each of the Lessor's rental offices. By signing the contract, the Customer states that they are familiar with, accept and undertake to respect the cited clauses and conditions. Upon request from the Customer, the Lessor is available to provide an additional Injury Protection service ("PAI") that also covers damages suffered directly by the driver, within the limits and conditions consultable in extract form on the Lessor's site www.locauto-rent.com and available, on request from the Customer, in paper form at each of the Lessor's rental offices. By signing the agreement, the Customer states that they have read, become familiar with, accepted and undertake to respect those limits and conditions. That additional service also eliminates liability for damages to the interior of the vehicle caused by and/or linked to the accident suffered by the driver.

3. REPAIR COSTS SUSTAINED BY THE CUSTOMER

At the moment of return, the Customer must park the vehicle in one of the marked spaces of the Lessor's rental office. Should that classification and quantification not be possible, the Lessor shall charge the amount specifically estimated upon notifying the Customer. The Lessor reserves the right not to immediately repair the vehicle if the damage caused by the Customer does not jeopardize its functioning.

10.4 NON-APPLICATION

All of the above relating to the Customer's participation in the financial damage suffered by the Lessor shall not be valid where Art. 11 applies.

In any event, the Lessor may not be considered liable for any type of damage occurring as a result of theft, riots, fires, earthquakes, wars or other causes of force majeure. In the event any items are found inside the vehicle, the Lessor shall notify the Customer, who must act at its own expense to recover the objects or have them shipped; in the event that the Customer fails to recover or ship the objects within 30 days after notification, they shall be considered abandoned and the Lessor will not be required to keep or return them.

In the event of purchase of the "Wi-Fi Router" service, upon picking up the vehicle the Customer shall be required to verify that the device supplied, consisting of a case containing a wi-fi router with a telephone SIM and a charging cable, is in good condition and suitable for the intended use. The Customer acknowledges that internet connectivity depends on the network coverage offered by the telephone operator and states that no reimbursement or compensation will be due in the event of partial use or inability to use the connection outside of areas covered by the signal. The Customer undertakes to keep the password provided for Internet access with the maximum diligence and not to communicate it to third parties. The Customer states that they are fully liable and thus indemnifies the Lessor from any consequences deriving from navigation, through the connection provided by the router, on inappropriate sites, such as, but not limited to, websites with child pornography, that praise terrorism, racial hatred, or sites belonging to the "dark web," and so on. The Customer undertakes to use and preserve the router and the connected accessories with the maximum diligence and to respond, pursuant to Art. 1588 Civil Code, for any damage or loss or deterioration of the same, unless proof is provided that they are not attributable to the Customer. In the event of total or partial loss of what is supplied, the Customer must immediately inform the Lessor and submit a report of the incident to the nearest competent judicial authority, delivering the hard-copy original of the report to the return location. If these requirements are not fulfilled, any illegitimate use of the connection provided by the router by third parties who may come into possession of the router shall be attributable exclusively to the Customer.
